

Child Safeguarding Statement

1. Nature of service and principles to safeguard children from harm

The Chester Beatty offers a varied and popular public programme of lectures, workshops, demonstrations and live performances of music and dance based on its collections, to illuminate cultures and traditions from around the world. The Education & Learning Programme includes services to and for children, and the museum is committed to a child-centred approach to this aspect of its work. It is central to the philosophy of the programme that children are unconditionally respected and kept safe from harm while using these services and that staff, volunteers and facilitators are provided with a safe environment in which to carry out this work.

The Chester Beatty is committed to upholding the highest possible standards in child protection and shall take all reasonable steps in relation to the safety and welfare of children and vulnerable persons who may be present within its facilities. The Chester Beatty will adhere to the Children First Act 2015, the Children First: National Guidance, and Tusla's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice by having and implementing child protection policies and procedures.
